Battle of the Books 2019

Join a team and compete!

Grades 7-9 & 10-12

Battle of the Books is a summer reading competition between 7-9 & 10-12 graders from libraries throughout Lackawanna County. To participate, grab some friends and sign up as a team or sign up alone and meet someone new! Read the books assigned to your age group and then compete against other teams in the county at Marywood University on August 8th.

You must register by July 1st in order to participate!

7-9th Grade Books

Review Session Schedule

Thursdays || 3:45 PM

June 20—Heir Apparent

June 27—Artemis Fowl

July 11—Theodore Boone

July 18—How We Roll

July 25—Review All

Each week we will review a new book and all the previous books. Review Sessions are helpful, but not required in order to join a team.

Books are available for check-out at the library! You may check-out one battle book at a time.

This year we will not have any formal review sessions with Grades 10-12. Teams are welcome to use the library as a meeting place to review.

Battle of the Books

Marywood University

Thursday, August 8th || 5 PM

You must be available on this date in order to join a team. Teams must include 3-5 members or they cannot participate on the day of the event.
