Serving on the Library Board

The Abington Community Library is seeking nominations to fill at-large board positions. The Board of Trustees oversees the affairs of the Abington Community Library. At-large board members represent the interests of residents in the service area. The Abington Community Library's service area includes the boroughs and townships in the Abington Heights School District (Clarks Green, Clarks Summit, Glenburn, Newton, North Abington, Ransom, South Abington, Waverly, and West Abington) and Scott Township. As part of the Lackawanna County Library System it offers Library service free of charge to any resident of Lackawanna County.
