Lackawanna County Library System Presents

1000 Books Before Kindergarten

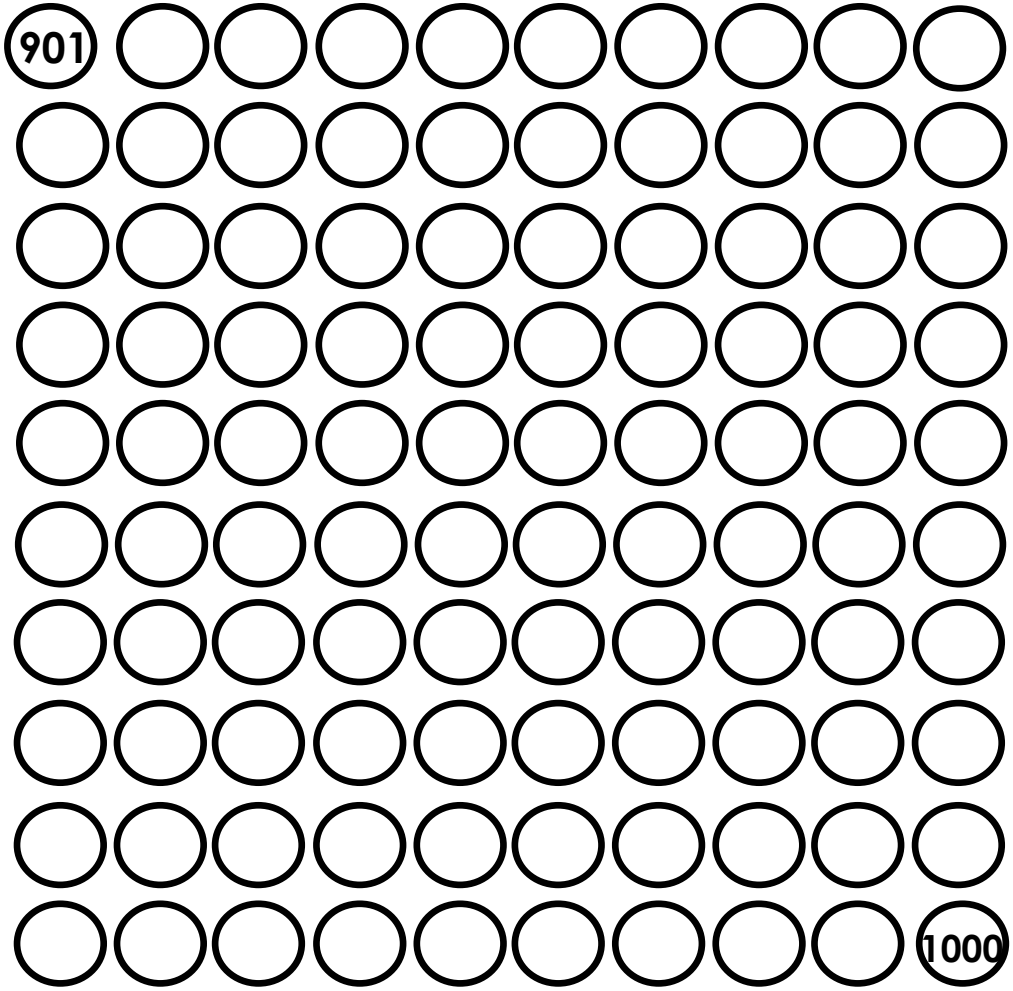
Name: _____

Age: _____

Early Literacy Tip: Young children need to learn that writing is used for many things: maps, lists, stories, etc. Studying maps, magazines or other papers together is fun - for example, you can look for things that are red, start with the letter B or that are tiny.

I read 1000 books!

Color or check off for every book read.



Congratulations! You have completed reading 1000 books!
